Unfinished Business:

Buy Local Update

At the monthly meeting there were ideas discussed on wintertime events that could be planned on a monthly basis. March 8th is International Women's Day. There will also be a Pinterest page created. Chamber provided an update. They will be distributing a comprehensive survey to members.

Village Update

P. Boyd provided an update regarding short term rentals within the Village. There was joint meeting with the Planning Commission and the attorneys and will be copying Elmwood township ordinances. Very little revenue generated from this process for the Village.

Marijuana retail sales moving forward with creating a masterplan. Commercial zone from the car wash down to the corner then down to the former Mrs. Peet's. Police Chief Droellinger will retire in 2026.

Grants Committee

D. McGuire is working with Cindi Place on updating the exhibition auction website. Articles written by Austin Rowlander that are published weekly in the Antrim Review are receiving great reviews.
